

RC&D Funds to Fannin County

The Northeast Texas Resource Conservation and Development Area provided a grant of $5,688 to Fannin County Health Department for assistance with residents On-Site Sewage Facilities. These funds came through the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality from fines assessed to cities or industry in Fannin County. These fines are given to the Northeast Texas RC&D for distribution to appropriate health department.

Pictured from Left to right: David Keene, Director Northeast Texas RC&D; Mary Bloodsworth, DR, Fannin County Health Inspector; Carroll Jones, Director Northeast Texas RC&D.